TULSA'S ELITE NEIGHBORHOOD SCHOOL

"I have had one of my children at Eliot since 2003 and I can attest to how well my high school and college age students have done not only academically but also socially (by volunteering, and being involved in student governments, etc.) and I believe it started at Eliot Elementary. They have proven to produce students that are prepared for not only middle school but high school by instilling ownership, responsibility, honesty, and integrity. If you ask my children today, it always comes back to what they learned from their teachers at Eliot." —Courtney & Mondo Bridges, Eliot Parents

"Eliot has outstanding teachers and staff who genuinely care about their students. They not only prepare the children for the next grade in elementary school, but Eliot students are ready for the challenges of middle school as well. The parent involvement helps Eliot feel like a true community." —Melissa Fabian, Eliot Parent

"I love Eliot because it has the feeling of a small community school, within the urban setting of Tulsa. The Eliot family is warm and focused together on the goal of teaching children to be kind and work hard. My son and daughter absolutely know that the adults in their community care about them. I truly believe Eliot is a wonderful place for students to begin their school career." —Stefani Bartholomew, Eliot Parent & Teacher
