Theatre Opportunity

HeARTsong Brings The Magic of Theatre to an After-School Program at Your Child's School!

Join us this fall for American Adventures!

This fun theatre-arts and acting class will introduce students in K-5th grades to the larger-than-life myths, tall tales, legends, and real-life heroes that form our country's rich cultural history. Each week, kids will discover fascinating all-American characters like Paul Bunyan and Babe the Blue Ox, Casey Jones, Calamity Jane, Daniel Boone, Sacajawea, Pecos Bill, Rip Van Winkle, Blue-Foot Sue, Johnny Appleseed, and lots more. Then we will bring these fabulous characters to life as we act out their stories using drama, music, and movement. Kids will learn basic acting skills, performance techniques, and theatre fundamentals while having fun in a safe, creative, and non-competitive environment.

Combining American history, fun characters, fabulous stories, and the magic of theatre, this class is a wonderful way to get boys and girls energized about the amazing men and women, both real and fictional, who have made us a nation of story-tellers and story-lovers.

Plus, it's a wonderful introduction to theatre arts like pantomime, improvisation, acting, and creative movement for young performers of all experience levels!

This class will end with a presentation for friends and family where each child will play the role of an important and beloved American character for the audience!
